Hybrid Yoga Program Overview

The purpose of the hybrid yoga certification is to support a convenient method for students to study and pursuit yoga certification by combining online study with face-to-face mentoring/coaching to meet Yoga Alliance's requirement for contact hours.

The mentor should be an E-RYT instructor at 200 or 500 hours. They will need to submit the a formal application to KCFitnessLink as a contractor to be considered a part of the adjunct staff that will work with you. The mentor and student will schedule at their convenience one-on-one mentoring and coaching sessions to review the curriculum highlights below. The student is responsible for any financial arrangements with the mentor and understands their tuition for the program does not include mentoring costs.

Mentoring & Coaching Hours

The student will meet, discuss and review required reading material topics from course textbooks, course manual and project/homework assignments, videos, audio files and related articles in the following areas, in addition to the normal hours for the 200/300 hour program:

Subject	Face to Face Hours
